Busking Competition Application Form

Winning Prize: Ashton Busking Amplifier, value $349

Junior Encouragement Award: Ibanez Ukulele, value $89

This competition is conducted during Narrandera's John O'Brien Festival between 10.30am and 12pm on Saturday 20th March along East Street.

Buskers may sing, play a musical instrument, dance, mime, juggle and/or perform and other appropriate theatrical art form, however, the judges' preference will be given to performances of traditional Australian bush music or with an Irish flavour. Only acoustic performances are accepted.

Applications and entry fees can be sent to Custom Music, 153 East Street Narrandera NSW 2700. Entries close Friday 19th March 2010.

The entry fee is $5 per group. If soloists or the entire group are under the age of 10, the entry fee is waived. You may receive a monetary appreciation from passersby for your performance but you may not solicit funds in a way which is likely to cause any discomfort or offense.

Allocation numbers (to be displayed) and positions can be collected on the day from Custom Music in Narrandera.

Performers are not to obstruct the flow of pedestrian traffic on the sidewalk. Buskers are not to perform in an offensive or dangerous manner including using foul language.

Additional entry forms and the program for Narrandera's John O'Brien Festival are available from www.johnobrien.org.au to be downloaded.
